

London for all: opening up debate on London's economy

Monday 14 July 2014 1.30-6pm

Bromley by Bow Centre
St Leonard's Street
London E3 3BT

<http://londonforall.eventbrite.com>

PROGRAMME

Facilitator: David Fell, Brook Lyndhurst and London Remade

1.30pm Tea and coffee

2pm Welcome

Dan Hopewell, Bromley by Bow Centre
Richard Lee, Just Space

2.15pm Session 1: The future of London's economy (10 mins each)

Doing less and doing it differently, a better future for London's economy Jenny Jones AM, Chair of London Assembly Economy Committee

'Streets paved with gold': how the London economy trades on illusions, and why it is bad for (almost) all of us James Meadway, new economics foundation

Gender and the London Economy: Towards Equitable and Sustainable Development, Diane Perrons, London School of Economics

Discussant: Michael Bach, London Forum

3.15pm Session 2: Making space for London's diverse economy (5 mins each)

Somewhere else; a good place for London's industry? Roy Tindle, London Thames Gateway Forum

The East End Trades Guild Krissie Nicholson and Shanaz Khan

Is there space for migrant and ethnic economies in a regenerated London? Patria Roman, Latin Elephant

Speaking up for and on behalf of the self-employed, micro and small businesses in London Sue Terpilowski, Federation of Small Businesses

Discussant: Lucy Rogers

4.15pm Session 3: Where do we go from here? (10 mins each)

Who should govern London's economy? Ben Rogers, Centre for London

Next steps: building alliances, adopting an organising agenda and hunting the decision makers Laurie Heselden, Trades Union Congress London Region

Unlocking local economies – exploring new economics in practice Rachel Laurence, new economics foundation

Discussant: David Fell, Brook Lyndhurst and London Remade

5.15pm Drinks reception

5.30pm Option of a short tour of Bromley by Bow Centre